

It is important the petition include documentation.

If a petition is submitted without any form of documentation, it will be rejected.

If insufficient documentation is submitted, and the petition committee requests additional information, the student has one week from the date of the committee meeting to submit documentation, or it will be rejected.

○

Commencement participation due to late application submission (see timeline on the FPU website)

Degree Conferral Date